Southwark Council

Workspace Provider List

Autumn 2019-20

Background

Southwark Council continues to grow its business base, and our Economic Wellbeing Strategy, New Southwark Plan, Area Action Plan for Old Kent Road, Skills Strategy and other ongoing work in our town centres and growth areas reflect our desire to make Southwark the place in London to start and grow a business.

The last decade has seen significant residential development, and the council welcome this investment in housing in the borough. However, much of this development has taken place on employment land. Limited space and high accommodation costs are putting pressure on businesses, while rising prices are having an impact on crucial development areas. Our growth areas represent an opportunity to increase our employment and business land provision, as well as anchor skills in the local area. Workspace providers will be a crucial part of this approach, developing both business and skills through providing inexpensive and well-managed workspace for the borough’s entrepreneurial and small business base.

The council aspires to use strong partnership working and the provision of workspace as a mechanism to support both a flourishing local economy and the skills agenda. We want to strengthen our growth sectors and encourage emerging businesses of all sizes to inform our efforts to deliver sector-specific skills. Our vision is of business communities able to thrive through access to appropriate and affordable workspace, pulling investment into the borough and enhancing resident employment prospects through skills development matched to our growth sectors’ needs.
Roles of workspace providers

We believe the offer of workspace providers is wider than just providing office space for entrepreneurs, small businesses, artists, and sole traders. Equally important is a provider’s approach to supporting the needs of resident businesses and the council’s skills agenda and future skills strategy. This includes the design of facilities, partnership prospects and co-working; the terms of occupancy; business support/mentoring; and how businesses can help inform local skills development and employment pathways.

Approaches vary depending on whether a provider is catering for businesses that are in ‘incubation’ stage or looking to expand. Some providers aim to attract businesses at all stages of the cycle. A huge variety exists in models and approaches and the council is keen to attract a range of providers to match the needs of Southwark’s diverse business community.

The list

Southwark Council has created a list for workspace providers to operate in the borough following a detailed application and screening process. The council is committed to supporting economic growth and investment and recognises the role workspace providers can play in the local economy, facilitating business growth, employment opportunities, and skills development as part of new and existing developments.

We intend for this list to be made available as early as possible in the planning application process, so developers and potential workspace providers can consider the options and business possibilities for new sites. The list is also publicly available on the council website.

The list will be updated with further application rounds. For further details, please contact Richard Pearce at richard.pearce@southwark.gov.uk.

Being on the workspace provider list could increase exposure to new business opportunities. However, inclusion on the list does not constitute a contract with Southwark Council or guarantee organisations new commissions. It has no direct monetary value in itself. The council also does not take any responsibility for discussions between developers and providers.

3Space provides community based solutions to hard-to-let properties or to fill interim gaps in large scale development projects. We are also able to provide affordable ‘Shared Workspace in a Box’ for just about any building. Generating value for landlords or companies with under-utilised space while building community, and providing the flexibility they need for their asset. |
Workspace Provider

Acme

Acme has been managing affordable artist studios since 1972 and is the largest provider of long-term artist workspace in England. We manage 16 studio sites in Greater London in eight London boroughs. Our total occupancy rates last year were 99.6 per cent with rent arrears of less than one per cent.

Acme has successfully advised many small and large artist studio providers national and internationally on obtaining, developing, managing and securing studio space.

Existing workspace

Studio buildings total 275,000 sq ft with 573 studio units providing workspace for 724 people. This includes 18,462 sq ft in Southwark providing space for over 70 artists in the borough. Owing to a policy of ensuring rents are affordable for artists, 60 per cent of tenants spend more than 20 hours a week in their studio bringing benefits to the local area and contributing to the wider creative economy.

Acme tenants are sole traders. Acme has been operating in Southwark for over 40, with over 70 sole traders working in our existing properties in Southwark.

Studios can be self-contained, sub-divided or shared. Sizes vary from 223 sq ft to 559 sq ft.

Business, employment, and engagement approach

Acme has developed model studio development specifications which aim to integrate artists’ needs, demand and financial constraints and deliver studio space at the highest possible value for money, including low on-going maintenance costs.

Acme manages all of its buildings from its office in Tower Hamlets. Acme has a dedicated Property Maintenance Team of five employees who manage physical issues with London-wide contractors to deal with emergencies.

In addition to maintenance issues, Acme has a team of four Artist Liaison Officers who manage applications for studios, liaise with potential leaseholders and provide financial and practical support to artists wishing to lead initiatives at the studios or in the local communities.

Opportunities sought

Sectors

Acme lets studios to artists (sole traders) working in a wide range of forms including painting, sculpture, print-making, fine art photography, installation, performance, multi-media, video and time-based work.

Acme do exclude some practices, specifically those with a purely commercial focus (e.g. fashion design).

Development

Acme focuses on providing long leasehold studios – 25 years plus or purchase, and directly manage all properties as a landlord to artist tenants.

Our premises are extremely varied: some are purpose built; others converted from industrial and educational buildings, offices, retail units, stately homes, potting sheds and a laundry. Some are owned by ACAVA and most are on leases of varying length.
The buildings each provide between seven and 60 studios, ranging in size from 80 - 760sqft. Most are self-contained, some shared or open plan.
Most buildings also provide exhibition, event and public workshop space. | ACAVA provides workspace at costs affordable by as many artists and other creatives as possible, and consistent with a sustainable business model. Studios are let for varying lengths of time to applicants who have satisfied the requirements of ACAVA Associate Membership.
Programme Managers raise separate funds to set up and manage educational, health and community initiatives, employing local artists. Studio awards and residencies in collaboration with universities, arts bodies and other studio groups, allow graduates and artists from other countries to benefit from free studios and professional support.
The core ACAVA team operate from its headquarters building in North Kensington, coordinating with Site Managers at each building.
Leasehold, preferably long, or freehold. | ACAVA’s core provision is for visual artists working in any media. Some buildings also provide studios and workspaces for contemporary crafts, designer/makers and other arts organisations.
ACAVA programmes are developed to support local arts, educational and community needs.
Further opportunities are sought to work with architects, regeneration agencies, local authorities and developers, particularly on planning gain collaborations. |

Workspace Provider

Cell Projects Space and Studios

Cell Projects Space is a charity and company limited by guarantee operating across Hackney, Tower Hamlets, and Southwark.

Its founders are artists with international experience of exhibiting and curation, applying this to their studio model for artists, visual artists and artisans.

The workspace hosts over 600 individual artists and artisans most of whom are sole traders, as well as employing 11 people directly.

Existing workspace

Eight locations, with the newest in Rollins Street in Southwark, seven in Hackney (in Dalston, Hackney Wick and Clapton), providing a total of 100,000 sq ft in leasehold space.

The spaces vary in size from 5,500 sq ft at Cambridge Heath E2 to 19,000 sq ft at Wallis Road, Hackney Wick E9.

Rollins Street is only offered to visual artists but the large number of daily applications for that site from locally based designers and makers indicates high demand in the area for mid to long terms affordable managed open workspace.

Business, employment, and engagement approach

Each year workspace is offered to a large number of graduates (ten to 15 per cent of tenants) with a further 25 per cent securing their first studio with Cell within three years of graduating and launching their business.

Cell includes all utility costs within its rents and offers flexible contracts. Tenants are also included in networking events, exhibition programmes and discounts at Cell’s partner restaurant Jones and Sons, at its Arcola Street site.

Revenue from the studios is used to fund non-commercial exhibitions, an internship and lectures programme, open to the public free of charge. Cell has a dedicated studios management, maintenance and infrastructure team.

The shared workspace offers eight workbenches with supporting storage for craftspeople that need occasional use of workspace, sometimes as they are just establishing their businesses. Some are also in other employment. Two buildings provide around 14,000 sqft of studios, shared workspace, galleries, selling space and administration offices.</td>
<td>Craft Central directly employs six staff. Many of the studio holders and sharers are sole traders or private companies and some have direct employees. Studio holders hold their studios under a licensee agreement. This provides for three months notice of termination on either side, unless the agreement is breached. Studios can be accessed 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with secure entry systems into both buildings. Craft Central employs the services of a key holding company. The license fee includes Network membership, rates, water and common services. Licensees take part in open studios and can hire the pop up shop, exhibition and meeting rooms at discounted rates.</td>

The wider network includes crafts that cannot be undertaken in a B1 zoning or for which the workshops are too small such as furniture making, large loom weaving and forging. Many designer makers combine modern ways of working with traditional practices, for example, most weavers design on computers. Ceramicists use electric, thermostatically controlled kilns.</td>

Eat Work Art Ltd

Eat Work Art was established in 2009 and is a limited company. In that time it has established three thriving studio spaces - two in Hackney and one in Waterloo. It was established with the aim of unlocking abandoned buildings in London to transform them into spaces for independent creative businesses to grow.

Eat Work Art provides platforms that nurture community, creativity and growth.

The company works to ensure there is a support system for SMEs, working with Get Set for Growth, the Federation of Small Businesses, and to improve employability and skills pathways in undertaking mentoring schemes that promote access to the Creative Industries.

Existing workspace

Eat Work Art has three studio spaces on long leasehold. Netil House and Hackney Downs Studios are in Hackney and Old Paradise Yard is in Lambeth.

Netil House is is 65,000 sq ft with 95 studios, predominantly B1-use with ancillary A-use.

Hackney Downs Studios has 140 studios and over 83,000 sq ft of similarly mixed B1 and A-use space. This includes a theatre, shop fronts, cafes and wellbeing centre. Studios range from 60 sq ft to 5,000 sq ft with a shared open plan space and affordable mini-studios range from 30 sq ft to 110 sq ft.

Old Paradise Yard has 25 studios, including an Art-Lab, prop-makers and sculptor, based around a garden.

Eat Work Art build using a series of sustainable construction techniques.

Business, employment, and engagement approach

Eat Work Art operates as a space provider and incubator for 300 businesses and over 1000 people. It provides space for start-ups, makers and artisans, right through to more established businesses such as web design agencies and architecture firms. Companies range from self-employed through to occasionally ten or more staff. Around 1/3 of residents have been active for less than a year, with 3/4 operational for less than three years. Market rents vary between £15 to £40 sq ft per annum on 12-month contracts with six-month break and three-month notice periods.

The company works with residents on staggered rents, payment plans and business support. Eat Work Art has in-house professional operational, communications and events teams.

Workspace Provider

Ethical Property

Ethical Property is one of the UK’s leading social businesses. We aim to ensure that commercial property supports the creation of a better world, through the provision of office, retail, meeting, and conference and workshop space.

Our centres are designed and managed to provide affordable, flexible and supportive workspace, which promotes the sharing of resources and the creation of a communal working environment, while removing the complexity and bureaucracy that often exists when renting property.

There are six centres in London, three in Brighton, two in Cardiff, two in Bath, six in Bristol and one each in Manchester, Sheffield, Edinburgh and Oxford.
The centres currently support approximately 1,000 organisations (342 as tenants) working in a wide variety of sectors. | We have skills in raising social finance, ensuring the long term vitality of community assets, overseeing the acquisition and redevelopment of commercial property, ongoing property, facility and financial management, providing packages of support services for tenants in order to support the development of their business and or charity. | We are a main provider of affordable workspace to the third sector including charities, community groups and other not for profit organisations. We also provide workspace to the creative, arts and media sectors and small retailers. |

Development

Ethical Property works with developers, social landlords and others who wish to lease or offer for sale freehold opportunities 10,000sqft and up.

We would take on leases with covenants as well as new build schemes where we could participate in the design and development process. Ethical Property would be open to providing investment from its own resources that could be combined with developer contributions etc.

Impact Hub

Impact Hub is the world’s largest network focused on building entrepreneurial communities for impact at scale — home to the innovators, the dreamers and the entrepreneurs who are creating tangible solutions to the world’s most pressing issues.

We describe our purpose as: “We catalyse entrepreneurial action for a better world”. Our values that support this are: collaborative, open, courageous, resourceful and caring.

We are an innovation lab, a business Incubator and a social enterprise community centre. We offer our members a unique ecosystem of resources, inspiration, and collaboration opportunities to grow their business and their impact.

Existing workspace

We currently operate one workspace in Kings Cross of 3,300sqft where we have been in operation for over ten years.

It has 36 fixed desks and 84 co-working desks, total 120 desks, plus meeting room space for approximately 50 people.

We have a total of 350 individual members, including five larger teams operating from the fixed desks.

Business, employment, and engagement approach

At the heart of our Impact Hub community is our fully hosted space. Members have access to several benefits, such as a registered mailbox, discounts on meeting rooms, flexible memberships, access to regular business clinics and events, peer to peer support, facilitated connections and access to a global network. A flexible, tailored mix of these solutions, combined with our locally rooted, global community, is how we enable growth in our members.

In addition we run various programmes intended to either broaden inclusivity (e.g. with homeless, refugees, migrants); or to support the scaling of social enterprises and social entrepreneurship with local, national and international impact.

Opportunities sought

Development

All types of commercial buildings, leases for minimum of 15 years or freehold purchase opportunities.

Impact Hub was part of the story of the re-development of Kings Cross and we believe that we can have a similar catalytic effect other neighbourhoods, bringing new life, ideas and investment to areas and helping to deliver sustainable development that involves and benefits the local community.

We are open to collaborating with other like-minded, impact focused organisation to co-share within a space.

We could also collaborate with a developer to help them operate shared services within their wider development including meeting rooms and events, as well as having our own dedicated space.

The Trampery

In 2009, The Trampery opened Shoreditch’s very first startup workspace. Since then the company has continued to pioneer new kinds of working environment for entrepreneurship and innovation.

The recent announcement of Fish Island Village marks the start of a new phase of expansion. This partnership with Peabody in Hackney Wick is creating London’s first live-work complex for entrepreneurs including 580 homes and 4,500 square metres of workspaces. An exciting portfolio of new projects is in development.

Existing workspace

Since 2009 The Trampery has opened eight acclaimed spaces including Tech City’s first startup workspace, the UK’s first accelerator for growth stage fashion, the UK’s first incubator for digital arts, the first independent corporate-startup matching facility and the first startup space for travel and tourism.

Each of these sites have been delivered in partnership with globally leading organisations including Publicis Groupe, The Barbican Centre, London College of Fashion, Accenture, London and Partners, the City of Oslo and the Swiss government.

The Trampery has operated over 80,000sqft of workspace comprising open plan desks, drop-in hot desk space, studios for small businesses, member’s lounges, work cafes, fabrication facilities and event space.

Business, employment, and engagement approach

The Trampery delivers a host of programmes across its sites to support its members. These include pitch sessions with investors, mentor meetings and workshops covering technical aspects of running a business. We have supported over 300 entrepreneurs across our network since inception.

In addition to business specific knowledge, The Trampery holds regular social events to promote member networking.

In 2016 The Trampery hosted, organised or collaborated on over 200 events for its members across its sites. Taking the Traveltech Lab as one example, the member businesses have raised over £20m in the two years since it opened, with over 50 businesses passing through the space.

Opportunities sought

Sectors

The Trampery supports creative entrepreneurs. Existing facilities focus on tech/software, retail, fashion, travel, visual art, design, music, architecture and consumer goods.

Development

The Trampery is actively looking for workspace to fit out and operate under a lease or management agreement, opportunities to use entrepreneurship for urban regeneration and place making strategies. The Trampery is actively looking for joint ventures with development partners.

<td>We set up as a space provider in this building 5 years ago and our very first tenants were Studiomakecreate. They do a great job of running our studios for us now and as they have been here since day one know everything! So please call Johnny on 0203 583 4110 Or visit our website www.toasterfactory.co.uk</td>
<td>If you would like to see who your neighbours will be please follow this link www.toasterfactory.co.uk/current-residents</td>
<td>Design, layout and set up of spaces provided by us to ensure that all of our tenant solutions are bespoke. We manage everything from the start and any maintenance going forward is provided in house and managed without hassle. Conference rooms, ad hoc storage, rental of equipment from small to large items including fork lifts all available. We are a fully functioning workshop and design studio with sets ups in South Bermondsey (50,000 ft.) and Erith (25000 ft.)</td>
<td>What we would really like is an opportunity to work with developers from the planning stage to use our experience to help design the best light industrial and studio space so that developments are future proofed to meet a flexible demand immediately they are completed. Beyond this initial moment we are extremely flexible as you might expect. We are cost effective and efficient in our solutions. Depending on where it is and what it is will appeal to different demographics and as we already work with such a broad range of end users we are confident we will find the best fit. Please come and see us and we will show you!</td>

Toaster Factory

We are just off the Old Kent Road and housed in a 40,000 ft. building that used to be the old Dualit toaster factory. Within the building we have different possibilities in terms of studios and workshops. It’s a great space that you will be sharing with us (we make amazing Christmas decorations)! There are a host of other exciting manufacturing and creative businesses working. Lots of variety!

As we own all of our buildings and work out of this one, we offer security of tenure, brilliant value and the knowledge of what a building should provide in order to meet your objectives.

<td>Vanguard Court in which tenants work together to resolve and manage any issues that arise. Vanguard offer basic cleaning, maintenance and housekeeping services but try to keep these to the minimum in order to keep service charges as low as possible for tenants. Vanguard actively support twice yearly open studios and from time to time provide financial support and sponsorship for external activities. Approximately 75 per cent of tenants are on below market rents. Vanguard’s aim is to gradually reduce this to around 30 per cent of tenants, with an average discount of around 25 per cent to-35 per cent from the market rent.</td>
<td>Vanguard has particular experience and interest in creative industries including artisan manufacturers and other craftspeople, artists in all categories, tech and design, including recording studios. Prepared to consider all opportunities but have a preference for freehold or long leasehold opportunities (100 yrs+). Able to consider complicated or difficult opportunities that require substantial and active management.</td>
